

Brothers,

As Deacon Byron would say “ Happy Lent” and hopefully you are doing well during this time of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

This Tuesday, March 10th , we will have our regular council meeting starting at 8pm in Room 103 of the Ministry Center. Hopefully you can join us and you can start the evening with prayer by attending mass at 7pm in the Chapel of the church.

At 7:30pm, our Worthy Chaplain, Father Jerry will speak to us on an article published in last month’s Columbia magazine. If you can’t find the article, I’ve attached a pdf copy of it and also the link to the article. And hopefully you have a catechism.

I would ask that you take a few minutes to review this article and possibly develop some of your own questions on it. Please make every effort to attend this presentation. We are not only a family organization of doing things for our church and community, but we are also an organization of faith.

This coming Friday is again Fish Fry Nite. Thank you to all the men and women who helped in preparing this event. Also a special thanks to Sandy Walsh and the Women’s Club for staffing the dessert table. Brothers, If you are not volunteering, try to provide a dessert . And thanks to those folks who were not part of our council, but still helped out, like Ron Linnabarry’s family, Steve Beason’s daughter Jennifer and her husband Dave Zwissler from the Cordova, TN. Council, and Brian Barrett. Hopefully I didn’t miss anyone. It went well and we sold over 150 meals. Thanks again to everyone who helped.

This week, I have the following brothers signed up to help; Mike Kelly, Ed Yingling, Dave Orsborn, Bob Genton, John Fleck, Sean Morrisey, Woody Trammel, Matt Tyack, Chip Hassey, Bill Rackett, Dick Henley, Bill Pederson, Steve Beason, Jim Andriot and Rich Baytosh. If something should come up and you can’t make it, try to find a sub and give me a call. Thanks

Last chance for the St. Pat’s dance on Saturday, March 14th. It sounds like it will be a good time, so if you are interested, please call Jim Walsh at 207-251-1906 or email at jwalsh6@maine.rr.com. No, Jim does not live in Maine. There is more information in this week’s church bulletin.

And on a final note...dues. The Financial Secretary informs me that as many as 57 brothers will be receiving Final Notices in the next few weeks. Unfortunately, we will have to suspend members this year, where in years’s past we would continue carrying them at a financial cost to our council. We cannot continue this practice. If you value the life insurance policy that is part of your membership and all the other benefits of being part of a Catholic family fraternal organization, you will sit down today and make a check out to the Knights of Columbus. If you are having financial difficulties, please contact Sean Morrisey, our Financial Secretary. Thank you and God Bless.

Vivat Jesus !
